What happens next?

When and how do I give back my equipment?

The Return Process with Student Help Desk

1. After course end (=end of internship (support program) for one year courses), all equipment must be packed as follows:
   a. Please use the original packaging and do not return the equipment in more boxes than you received.
   b. Please pack everything in a way that it won't get damaged.
2. Please open a ticket via the student help desk
   a. Select category "Technical Issues"
   b. The message must include:
      First name + last name
      Address where the devices should be picked up, i.e., street, house number, postcode and city
      Name written on the doorbell of that address

3. Once your ticket is issued, please wait for further details. Our partner will contact you.

You can find further information on what and how to return the equipment in our Student Help Desk

When will I receive my certificate?

The final certificate of completion will be sent to you on the last day of the internship period via email.

Do I still get support from DCI?

Yes, we continue to offer you:

- Up to 6 months after the official end of your course
  - Help with your application documents
  - Support with your job search
- Stay connected through the Alumni Community

Join the Alumni Community on LinkedIn

We believe that having a strong community is the best way to continue to grow and get even more out of your career!

Why you should join the Alumni Community:

Connect	Connect with other Alumni, exchange ideas and benefit from a huge pool of know-how and grow your professional network
Tips & Tricks	Learn from former graduates on how they got a job or share your own experiences and help others to get a foothold in IT
Questions	Facing a career dead end? Use the community to get advice and support with regards to career questions
Events	Receive exclusive invitations to unique Alumni Events onsite or remote or Industry Lectures

Your Student Slack Account will be deleted soon so come over to the Alumni Community instead so we can stay in touch!
